Domestic dispute ends in injury, serious charges

By Jessey Bird Vancouver Sun July 30, 2007 Can West News Service

Windsor, Ont.—Neighbours quietly watched as a Windsor woman was taken away on Sunday evening, after her boyfriend allegedly ran her over with a mini-van—twice.

The 47-year-old accused male was arrested at the scene.

Police were called to a housing complex on Sunday at about 3:30 p.m. for a domestic disturbance.

The couple were arguing over a cellphone when the male allegedly hit his girlfriend with a mini-van, said police. The victim was standing next to the car and the vehicle was reversing, said Staff Sgt. Steven Bodri, "As a result of him reversing he struck her and I guess she fell down.

"He then proceeded to drive, causing further injuries, said Bodri.

The 40-year-old victim was immediately transported to hospital with a suspected fractured leg and arm. While she is expected to make a full recovery, Bodri said police take this kind of offence very seriously. "Any domestic violence incidents are serious," said Bodri. "This is an ongoing problem we have every day in the city and elsewhere in the province."
